

WIFE'S AFFECTION RETURNED AGAIN

His eyes almost closed and his face and head badly battered, John Keating, of 446 South Second street, presented a sorry looking spectacle when he was haled before Recorder Stackhouse this morning on a charge of assault and battery upon his wife, Florence Keating.

Policeman Murray arrested Keating last night on the complaint of his wife, who said that the man was causing a disturbance in the house. Mrs. Keating's mind evidently underwent a change, for when her husband was arraigned this morning in the police court, she was not present to make a complaint, and the assault charge was dropped and one of disorderly conduct was substituted. On this charge Keating was given twenty days in jail.

When Policeman Murray was leading Keating to the patrol box his wife followed and began to beat and tear at her husband's face and hair. The patrolman interfered and prevented his prisoner from getting any more rough treatment.
